

AceCam™ Golf Privacy Policy

Introduction

At AceCam™ Golf LLC ("AceCam," "we," "us," or "our"), we prioritize the privacy and security of your personal information. As the provider of the AceCam mobile application ("AceCam App") and associated services (collectively referred to as the "Services"), this Privacy Policy is designed to inform you about how we gather, utilize, share, and safeguard your information.

This Privacy Policy outlines the types of personal data we collect, the purposes for which we utilize that data, the methods of handling your information, and your rights related to your personal data. We are committed to compliance with applicable privacy laws and regulations, including the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) and the California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA).

"Personal Data" refers to information that can identify you, either directly or indirectly, and may include personally identifiable information ("PII"), financial information, and any other details you voluntarily provide while using our Services.

We collect your information when you engage with our Services and through various interactions, including communications with us. The term "Services" encompasses our application, website, and other platforms through which you may access this Privacy Policy.

We may update this Privacy Policy periodically. If we make significant changes, we will notify you by posting the revised policy on the AceCam App and our website. Changes will take effect as of the "Last Updated" date indicated at the end of this Privacy Policy. Continued use of our Services signifies your acceptance of the updated Privacy Policy. We encourage you to review this document periodically for the latest information regarding our privacy practices.

BY USING OUR SERVICES, YOU ACKNOWLEDGE AND CONSENT TO THE COLLECTION, TRANSFER, STORAGE, DISCLOSURE, AND OTHER USES OF YOUR INFORMATION AS DESCRIBED IN THIS PRIVACY POLICY. IF YOU DO NOT AGREE WITH THIS PRIVACY POLICY, PLEASE DO NOT USE OUR SERVICES.

Information We Collect

At AceCam, we gather different types of information to provide and enhance our Services. This section details the categories of information we collect and how we obtain it.

Personal Data

When you register for an account or engage with our Services, you may be asked to provide certain personal information, including but not limited to:

- Name: To personalize your account and interactions.
- Email Address: For communication, account verification, and updates.
- Phone Number: To facilitate account management and support services.
- Physical Address: For billing purposes or where applicable.

- Payment Information: Such as credit card details, processed through third-party payment processors.

Usage Data

We automatically collect certain information about how you interact with our Services. This information may include:

- IP Address: To identify your device and provide location-based services.
- Device Type: Such as mobile or desktop, including unique device identifiers.
- Browser Type and Version: To optimize your experience with our Services.
- Pages Visited: Information about the specific pages and features you access.
- Time and Date of Visits: To analyze usage patterns and improve our Services.
- Clickstream Data: A record of your activity within our Services.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

We use cookies, web beacons, and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience and collect information about your usage of our Services. Cookies are small text files placed on your device that help us recognize you and gather information about your preferences. You can control cookie settings through your browser, but disabling cookies may limit your ability to use certain features of our Services.

Information Collected from Third Parties

We may also obtain information about you from third parties, including social media platforms, business partners, and analytics providers. This information may include:

- Profile information (e.g., username, profile picture)
- Interaction data from social media integrations
- Demographic data to enhance our understanding of our users

Location Data

If you enable location services on your device, we may collect precise location data to provide location-based features and enhance your user experience. You can control location settings through your device's privacy settings.

Key Points:

- The information we collect is vital for the functionality of our Services, enhancing user experience, and ensuring compliance with legal obligations.
- We strive to limit the collection of personal data to what is necessary for the effective delivery of our Services.

Accuracy and Responsibility

It is your responsibility to provide and maintain accurate, current, and complete personal information when using AceCam's Services. You agree to promptly update any information you provide to ensure it remains accurate, complete, and up to date.

AceCam is not responsible for any issues, problems, or liabilities that may arise due to inaccurate, incomplete, or outdated information. We reserve the right to reject or delete any account or entry that we believe in good faith to be false, fraudulent, or inconsistent with this Privacy Policy.

How We Use Your Information

At AceCam, we utilize the information we collect to provide, maintain, and enhance our Services, as well as to communicate effectively with you. The primary purposes for which we use your personal information include the following.

- We use your information to facilitate the creation of accounts, enable access to our Services, and manage your participation in contests and events. Personal data is essential for processing transactions, managing user accounts, and ensuring a smooth user experience.
- Your contact information is utilized to send notifications, updates, and promotional content related to our Services. We may respond to inquiries, provide customer support, and manage your account, which includes sending confirmations, invoices, and technical notices.
- To improve our Services, we analyze user behavior and preferences, allowing us to enhance functionality and develop new features. Your information helps us understand how you interact with our Services, enabling us to tailor content and marketing efforts to better meet your interests.
- We may also use your information to comply with applicable laws and regulations, protect our rights and the rights of others, and prevent fraud or misuse of our Services. In addition, we may send you promotional materials and information about upcoming contests and special offers, provided you have given your consent to receive such communications.

Lastly, your personal information may be used as necessary to resolve disputes, enforce our agreements, and fulfill legal obligations.

We are committed to ensuring transparency in how your information is utilized, and we take great care to respect your privacy rights in all our operations.

Cookies and Tracking Technologies

At AceCam, we utilize cookies and similar tracking technologies to enhance your experience while using our Services. Cookies are small text files that are placed on your device by websites you visit. They allow the website to recognize your device and store certain information about your preferences or past actions.

Types of Cookies We Use:

1. Session Cookies: These are temporary cookies that remain on your device until you leave our website or close the app. They help us remember your preferences during a single browsing session.
2. Persistent Cookies: These cookies remain on your device for a specified period or until you manually delete them. They help us remember your preferences for future visits, improving your overall experience.
3. Third-Party Cookies: We may also use third-party cookies from our partners to help us analyze website traffic, deliver targeted advertisements, and enhance our marketing efforts.

Purpose of Cookies:

Cookies help us understand how users interact with our Services. We use cookies for various purposes, including:

- To improve user experience by remembering your preferences and settings.
- To analyze website traffic and usage patterns, allowing us to enhance our Services and develop new features.
- To deliver targeted advertisements and promotional content based on your interests.

Managing Cookies:

You have the option to manage cookies through your browser settings. Most web browsers allow you to control cookies through their settings, including blocking or deleting cookies. However, please note that disabling cookies may impact the functionality and performance of our Services.

For more information on how to manage cookies, please refer to your browser's help documentation.

By using our Services, you consent to the use of cookies and tracking technologies as described in this Privacy Policy. If you do not agree with our cookie practices, please adjust your browser settings accordingly or refrain from using our Services.

SMS Messaging Program

Program Name: AceCam SMS Alerts

By providing your phone number, you consent to receive text messages from AceCam regarding contests, promotions, and updates related to our Services. These messages may include confirmations, notifications, and marketing content.

Cancellation: You can cancel the SMS service at any time by texting "STOP" to the short code. Upon sending the SMS message "STOP," you will receive a confirmation message indicating that you have been unsubscribed. After this, you will no longer receive SMS messages from us. If you wish to rejoin, simply sign up again as you did initially.

Support: If you experience any issues with the messaging program, you can reply with the keyword "HELP" for assistance or contact us directly at support@acecamgolf.com.

Carrier Liability: Please note that carriers are not liable for delayed or undelivered messages.

Message and Data Rates: Standard message and data rates may apply for any messages sent to you from us and to us from you.

Sharing Your Information

At AceCam, we are committed to protecting your personal information. However, there are certain circumstances where we may share your information with third parties. This section outlines the situations in which we may disclose your personal information:

With Third-Party Service Providers

We may share your information with trusted third-party service providers who assist us in operating our Services, conducting our business, or servicing you. These service providers are required to keep your information confidential and are prohibited from using it for any other purpose. Examples of such service providers include payment processors for handling financial transactions, analytics providers to help us understand user behavior and improve our Services, and email service providers for sending newsletters and promotional communications.

For Legal Compliance

We may disclose your information if required to do so by law or in response to valid requests by public authorities (e.g., a court or government agency). This includes sharing information when we believe that disclosure is necessary to comply with legal obligations, protect our rights, or prevent fraud or abuse.

In Business Transfers

In the event of a merger, acquisition, or sale of all or a portion of our business or assets, your personal information may be transferred as part of that transaction. We will provide notice before your personal information is transferred and becomes subject to a different Privacy Policy.

With Your Consent

We may share your information with third parties if you have provided your consent to do so. This includes sharing information with social media platforms or other services you choose to connect with AceCam.

Aggregate and De-Identified Information

We may share aggregated or de-identified information that does not directly identify you. This information can be used for various purposes, including research, marketing, or analysis.

For Contests and Promotions

If you participate in contests or promotional events, we may share your information with sponsors or partners involved in the contest or promotion. Your participation may require sharing your name and other identifying information to fulfill prizes or recognition.

We ensure that any third parties with whom we share your information maintain confidentiality and comply with applicable privacy laws. Transparency is essential, and we will not sell or rent your personal information to third parties for their own marketing purposes without your explicit consent.

Third-Party Services

AceCam may integrate with various third-party services to enhance the functionality of our platform. These services may include payment processors, analytics providers, social media platforms, and other tools that assist in delivering our Services to you.

Integration with Third-Party Services: When you interact with these third-party services, they may collect your personal information. The data collected by these services is governed by their respective privacy policies, and we encourage you to review those policies to understand how they handle your information.

User Consent: By using our Services, you consent to the sharing of your information with these third-party services as necessary to provide you with the features and functionality of AceCam. Please be aware that your interactions with these third-party services are subject to their terms of service and privacy policies.

Limitations of Responsibility: While we strive to work with reputable third parties, AceCam is not responsible for the privacy practices, content, or actions of these third-party services. We recommend that you exercise caution and review the privacy practices of any third-party services before providing them with your personal information.

If you have any questions about how we work with third-party services or their impact on your personal information, please contact us using the information provided in the "Contact Us" section.

Data Security

At AceCam, we prioritize the security of your personal information and implement a variety of measures to protect it from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, and destruction. We employ industry-standard security practices to ensure the safety of your data.

We utilize encryption technologies to safeguard sensitive information transmitted over the internet. This means that data exchanged between your device and our servers is encrypted, making it difficult for unauthorized parties to intercept and read your personal information.

Access to personal information is restricted to authorized personnel only. We have established strict access controls and authentication procedures to ensure that only those who need access to your data for legitimate business purposes can do so.

Additionally, we regularly conduct security assessments and audits to evaluate our data protection measures and identify potential vulnerabilities. Our commitment to security includes ongoing training for our staff on best practices for data handling and privacy protection.

While we take extensive precautions to protect your information, please be aware that no method of transmission over the internet or electronic storage is 100% secure. Therefore, while we strive to use commercially acceptable means to protect your personal data, we cannot guarantee its absolute security.

In the event of a data breach that affects your personal information, we will promptly notify you in accordance with applicable laws and regulations. We are dedicated to maintaining your trust by being transparent about how we manage and protect your data.

Security of Your Information

At AceCam, we take the security of your personal information seriously and implement a variety of measures to protect it from unauthorized access, disclosure, alteration, or destruction.

Measures Implemented: We utilize industry-standard security technologies and procedures to safeguard your data. This includes, but is not limited to:

- Encryption: Sensitive information transmitted between your device and our servers is encrypted using Secure Socket Layer (SSL) technology to ensure that your data remains confidential during transmission.
- Secure Servers: We host our Services on secure servers with limited access, designed to protect against unauthorized access.
- Access Controls: We implement strict access controls to limit access to personal information to only those employees and service providers who need to know that information for the purposes described in this Privacy Policy.

User Responsibility: While we strive to protect your personal information, it is also important for you to take precautions to protect your data. We recommend that you:

- Use strong, unique passwords for your accounts and change them regularly.
- Do not share your account details or personal information with others.
- Log out of your account when using shared or public devices.

Limitations: Please be aware that, despite our efforts, no method of transmission over the Internet or method of electronic storage is 100% secure. While we take reasonable steps to protect your personal information, we cannot guarantee its absolute security. In the event of a data breach, we will notify you as required by law.

International Data Transfers

At AceCam, we may transfer your personal information to countries outside of your home country, including the United States, where data protection laws may differ from those in your home country.

Data Transfer Information: By using our Services, you acknowledge and agree that your personal information may be transferred to and processed in a country outside of your home jurisdiction.

Legal Basis for Transfer: We take steps to ensure that any international transfers of personal data comply with applicable data protection laws. This may include entering into contractual agreements with third parties or relying on other lawful mechanisms to ensure that your data is adequately protected.

User Rights: Regardless of where your data is processed, you retain all rights regarding your personal information as described in this Privacy Policy. We are committed to ensuring that your personal data remains protected and that you can exercise your rights in relation to your data, irrespective of the country in which it is processed.

If you have any questions regarding our international data transfer practices or wish to exercise your rights, please contact us using the information provided in the "Contact Us" section.

Your Rights Regarding Your Personal Information

As a user of AceCam, you have certain rights concerning your personal information. We are committed to ensuring that you can exercise these rights in accordance with applicable data protection laws. The rights you may have include the following:

1. Right to Access: You have the right to request copies of your personal information held by us. This allows you to know what data we have about you and how it is being used.
2. Right to Correction: If you believe that any information we hold about you is inaccurate or incomplete, you have the right to request that we correct or update it.
3. Right to Deletion: You have the right to request the deletion of your personal information when it is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, or if you withdraw your consent.
4. Right to Object: You have the right to object to the processing of your personal information in certain circumstances, including when we are processing your data for direct marketing purposes.
5. Right to Restrict Processing: You can request that we restrict the processing of your personal information if you contest the accuracy of the data, if our processing is unlawful, or if you need us to retain your personal information for legal purposes.
6. Right to Data Portability: You have the right to request that we transfer your personal information to you or to a third party in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format.
7. Right to Withdraw Consent: If you have provided consent for us to process your personal information, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. This will not affect the legality of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

To exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the contact details provided in the Contact section of this Privacy Policy. We may need to verify your identity before responding to your request, and we will aim to respond to your requests within a reasonable timeframe, typically within 30 days.

We may refuse to comply with requests that are unreasonably repetitive, require excessive technical effort, or jeopardize the privacy of others.

Data Retention

At AceCam, we are committed to retaining your personal information only for as long as necessary to fulfill the purposes for which it was collected, in accordance with applicable laws and regulations.

We retain your personal data for the following purposes:

1. Service Provision: We keep your information as long as your account is active or as needed to provide you with our Services. This includes maintaining your account, processing transactions, and enabling participation in contests and events.
2. Legal Obligations: Certain data may be retained for a longer period if required to comply with legal obligations, resolve disputes, or enforce our agreements. This may include information necessary for tax, accounting, or other legal requirements.
3. Account Management: If you choose to close your account, we will retain your information for a reasonable period to ensure compliance with any applicable laws and to respond to any legal inquiries or obligations.
4. Aggregated Data: We may retain and use aggregated or de-identified information that does not directly identify you for analytical purposes, research, and service improvement.

When your personal information is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, or if you request its deletion and it is no longer required for legal or legitimate business purposes, we will take reasonable steps to securely delete or anonymize your data.

We will ensure that any retained personal information is protected according to our data security practices.

User Rights Regarding Data

At AceCam, we recognize that you have certain rights regarding your personal information. This section outlines your rights and how you can exercise them:

Access to Personal Data: You have the right to request access to the personal information we hold about you. Upon request, we will provide you with a copy of your personal data, subject to applicable laws.

Correction of Information: If you believe that any information we hold about you is inaccurate or incomplete, you have the right to request that we correct it. You can submit a request for correction, and we will make the necessary updates as required by law.

Deletion of Data: You have the right to request the deletion of your personal information when it is no longer necessary for the purposes for which it was collected, or if you withdraw your consent (where applicable). We will respond to your deletion request in accordance with applicable laws.

Data Portability: You have the right to obtain your personal information in a structured, commonly used, and machine-readable format. You may request a copy of your data to transfer it to another service provider.

Withdrawal of Consent: If we are processing your personal information based on your consent, you have the right to withdraw that consent at any time. Withdrawing your consent will not affect the lawfulness of processing based on consent before its withdrawal.

If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the information provided in the "Contact Us" section.

Compliance with Laws

At AceCam, we are committed to ensuring that our practices regarding the collection, use, and protection of personal information comply with applicable laws and regulations. This commitment is integral to maintaining user trust and protecting your privacy.

Applicable Regulations: Our data protection practices adhere to various laws and regulations, including, but not limited to:

- The General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) for users located in the European Union.
- The California Consumer Privacy Act (CCPA) for residents of California, USA.
- Any other applicable local, state, national, or international laws governing data protection and privacy.

Commitment to Compliance: We regularly review and update our practices to ensure compliance with these regulations. This includes implementing necessary security measures, providing users with clear information about their rights, and responding to user requests regarding their personal information in accordance with the law.

User Rights Under Specific Laws: Under these regulations, users may have specific rights regarding their personal information, including the right to access, correct, delete, and obtain their data, as well as the right to withdraw consent for processing. We are dedicated to honoring these rights and providing users with the necessary tools to manage their personal data effectively.

Children's Privacy

At AceCam, we are committed to protecting the privacy of children. Our Services are not designed for children under the age of 13, and we do not knowingly collect personal information from children in this age group. If we become aware that we have inadvertently collected personal information from a child under 13, we will take steps to delete that information promptly.

Parents or guardians of children under 13 are encouraged to monitor their children's online activities and instruct them not to provide personal information without parental consent. If you believe that we have collected personal information from a child under 13, please contact us using the contact information provided in the Contact section of this Privacy Policy.

For users who are between the ages of 13 and 17, we encourage parents or guardians to discuss the importance of online privacy and safety. While individuals in this age group may use our Services, they must do so with the consent of their parent or guardian.

In compliance with the Children's Online Privacy Protection Act (COPPA), we take the following measures to protect children's privacy:

- We limit the collection of personal information to what is necessary to provide our Services.
- We provide clear information about our practices regarding the collection and use of personal information.
- We will not sell or share personal information collected from children with third parties.

If we decide to change our policies regarding children's data in the future, we will update this section to reflect those changes and ensure compliance with applicable laws.
